Request No.: DTE-1-9

Identify any and all services provided by Enermetrix to any company within the Unitil system, other than Fitchburg, during the period of Unitil's ownership in Enermetrix.

Response:

Enermetrix and Unitil Resources, Inc. (URI) were parties to a "Retail Energy Exchange Participation and License Agreement," (the "REX License") dated March 8, 1999. URI and its subsidiary, Usource, Inc. ("Usource") are unregulated subsidiaries of Unitil Corporation. The REX License allowed URI access to the Enermetrix retail energy exchange (the "Exchange") for a five year period for a license fee of $200,000 plus annual maintenance fees. The license was non-exclusive to URI and non-transferable. Between 1999 and 2001, URI and Usource brokered many energy purchases for retail consumers through the Exchange.
